

AMERICAN LEADERSHIP ACADEMY PARENT INVOLVEMENT POLICY FOR TITLE I

American Leadership Academy regards parental involvement vital to the academic success of students. Parents are the initial teachers of their children and serve as partners with the school in helping their children achieve academic success. American Leadership Academy will involve parents in the development of its district plan.

- ALA will invite two parents from the Elementary school to participate in the development of the schools plan. Information, including academic data, State and Federal allocations, personnel, and instructional strategies will be discussed with parent representatives during the meetings.
- The parents will review the information, attend scheduled meetings and give input into the development of the schools Title I plan.
- ALA School Board will give final approval of the schools plan. American Leadership Academy will involve parents in the process of school review and improvement.
- Share the achievement data with parents.
- Invite input from parents regarding school academic goals.
- Discuss scientifically-based research instructional practices.
- Give direction in securing research-based curriculum materials that align with goals. American Leadership Academy will provide coordination and technical assistance to promote quality parental involvement activities.
- Twice during the year, parents will be included in discussions about coordination and effective use of resources.
- Provide annual input to school administrators and teachers on effective parent involvement strategies.
